

GERMAN LANGUAGE COURSE VISA

Persons who wish to do a German language course in Germany are required to obtain a national visa to reside in Germany. Upon arrival in Germany, you are required to register with the competent local Alien Authority in order to receive the corresponding residence permit for the duration of your studies.

Where and how to apply:

Your visa application must be submitted in person. You are required to make an online visa appointment in the section for long-term visa. Please schedule your appointment free of charge here. Once you have made the visa appointment you will receive a confirmation email showing the date and time. Please note that your appointment will be cancelled if you miss your assigned slot.

Required documents (in original, where applicable, plus 2 photocopies):

Only complete applications with original documents and two (2) copies of all documents can be accepted! Submitting a complete application file does not automatically mean that the visa will be granted. The following must be presented with the application and the Embassy reserves the right to ask for further supporting documents and/or information:

- two completed & signed visa application forms. Please find the relevant forms here.
- Valid passport. The passport must have at least two empty pages available. Please include previous passports, either valid or cancelled.
- Copy of all previously issued Schengen visas, including the pages with the entry and exit stamps from the Schengen area.
- Two recent and biometric passport sized photographs. Please do not attach the photos to the application form and see the requirements for photographs here.
- Confirmed registration for the language course, or certificate of enrolment (the course must consist of at least 18 hours/week of classes for the duration of a minimum of 6 months and a maximum of 1 year). The confirmation must show that the person's presence is necessary (in person classes and not only online) despite the current coronavirus situation.
- Evidence of sufficient funds, i.e. a minimum of € 11,688 per year. Proof may be provided either by:
 - 1) Statements of your personal bank account from last three months.
